

A BILL

To abolish the Minority Business Development Agency, repeal the Minority Business Development Act of 2021, and for other purposes.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

This Act may be cited as the “Minority Business Development Agency Abolition Act of 2026”.

SECTION 2. FINDINGS.

Congress finds the following:

(1) The Minority Business Development Agency (MBDA), a component of the Department of Commerce, funds business centers and programs to assist businesses owned by members of designated minority groups.

(2) By providing business assistance on the basis of the race or ethnicity of business owners, the MBDA expends money drawn from the Treasury on objects that are not among the enumerated powers of Congress, exceeding the “general Welfare” clause of Article I, Section 8, Clause 1, which James Madison explained in Federalist No. 41 is limited by the specific powers enumerated after it and confers no separate power to spend for any object Congress may choose.

(3) The functions of the MBDA are not “necessary and proper for carrying into Execution” any power vested by the Constitution in the Government of the United States and therefore find no support in Article I, Section 8, Clause 18, which Madison in Federalist No. 44 described as a means of executing powers already granted rather than a source of new ones, as the Anti-Federalist writer Brutus warned in his first essay of 1787 it would otherwise become.

(4) By providing business assistance on the basis of the race or ethnicity of business owners, the MBDA treats Americans differently on the basis of race or ethnicity, contrary to the equal protection of the laws guaranteed by the Fourteenth Amendment and secured against the Federal Government through the Due Process Clause of the Fifth Amendment, and contrary to the self-evident truth declared in 1776 “that all men are created equal.”

(5) In carrying out its functions, the MBDA disregards the Ninth Amendment, which provides that “The enumeration in the Constitution, of certain rights, shall not be construed to deny or disparage others retained by the people,” including the right of the people to order their own lives, property, and affairs free of federal direction in matters the Constitution does not commit to the Federal Government.

(6) The Constitution delegates to the United States no power over local business assistance. By providing business assistance on the basis of the race or ethnicity of business owners, the MBDA exercises powers that the Tenth Amendment reserves “to the States respectively, or to the people,” contrary to Federalist No. 45, in which Madison described the powers delegated to the Federal Government as “few and defined” and those remaining in the States as “numerous and indefinite.”

(7) The Declaration of Independence affirms that governments are instituted to secure the unalienable rights of the people and derive “their just powers from the consent of the governed,” and it charged the Crown with having “erected a multitude of New Offices, and sent hither swarms of Officers to harass our people, and eat out their substance.” The MBDA perpetuates the centralized administration the Declaration condemned.

(8) Abolishing the Minority Business Development Agency and repealing the Minority Business Development Act of 2021 will reduce the size and cost of the Federal Government, return to the States and to the people the powers the Constitution reserves to them, and restore the constitutional principles of limited government and enumerated powers.

SECTION 3. ABOLITION OF THE MINORITY BUSINESS DEVELOPMENT AGENCY.

(a) In General.—The Minority Business Development Agency, a component of the Department of Commerce, is hereby abolished effective immediately following the enactment of this Act.

(b) Wind-Down Operations.—Immediately following the enactment of this Act, the President shall designate an appropriate official to expeditiously wind down the operations of the Minority Business Development Agency, ceasing all functions, none of which shall be transferred to any other department or agency of the Federal Government.

(c) Transfer of Assets and Liabilities.—All assets, liabilities, contracts, property, and records of the Minority Business Development Agency shall be transferred to the designated official under subsection (b) for appropriate disposition.

(d) Employee Transition.—Employees of the Minority Business Development Agency shall be offered opportunities for reassignment within the federal government or provided with severance and retraining assistance as prescribed by existing federal law.

SECTION 4. REPEAL OF THE MINORITY BUSINESS DEVELOPMENT ACT OF 2021.

(a) In General.—The Minority Business Development Act of 2021 (15 U.S.C. 9501 et seq.), as amended, is hereby repealed in its entirety.

(b) Conforming Amendments.—The United States Code and all other relevant Federal laws are amended by—

(1) striking all references to the Minority Business Development Agency and to other entities or structures established by the Minority Business Development Act of 2021;

(2) terminating every function of the Minority Business Development Agency, no part of which shall be reassigned to any other department or agency of the Federal Government; and

(3) making such other conforming changes as necessary to reflect the repeal and the permanent abolition of the Minority Business Development Agency.

(c) Effective Date.—The repeal under this section shall take effect immediately following the enactment of this Act.

SECTION 5. TRANSITION PROVISIONS.

(a) No Restoration of Prior Structures.—No element of the Minority Business Development Agency shall revert to its organizational structure as it existed prior to the enactment of the Minority Business Development Act of 2021, and no function of the Minority Business Development Agency shall be restored to any predecessor department, agency, or office.

(b) Permanent Abolition.—No department, agency, office, or other entity shall be established to carry out the functions of the Minority Business Development Agency abolished by this Act.

SECTION 6. SEVERABILITY.

If any provision of this Act, or the application thereof to any person or circumstance, is held invalid, the remainder of the Act and the application of such provision to other persons or circumstances shall not be affected thereby.
